LAI recognizes professional excellence through the presentation of international awards to members and the larger land economics professional community.

The LAI network of chapters and online member database provide access to senior level professionals locally, nationally and worldwide for assistance with contacts, information or professional services on land use issues.

Twice-yearly Land Economics Weekends provide opportunities to broaden perspectives and meet face-to-face with other top professionals from around the world, while getting behind-the-scenes access to some of the world’s most interesting cities.

LAI provides a forum for discussion through our private LinkedIn group.

Connect with news about members and chapters through our online publication KeyNotes.

LAI supports research and education on a broad variety of land use topics through the Land Economics Foundation. The mission of the LEF is to administer an investment fund which provides grants for research projects. LEF grants are approved for projects that encourage and support the study and application of land economics and support the highest ideals of scholarship and integrity.
